

AMAZING GRACE

Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind, but now I see

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

My chains are gone, I've been set free
My God, my Savior has ransomed me
And like a flood His mercy reigns Unending love
Amazing grace

The Lord has promised good to me
His word my hope secures
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures

"You have gone home to God to rest in His eternal love.
Therefore, our goodbyes are not forever, they are not the end;
it simply means 'I'll miss you,' until we meet again."

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.

Amen.

IN LOVING MEMORY

JEANNIE TAN

"Those we love and lose are always connected by heartstrings into infinity."

JEANNIE TAN

23 JULY 1981 - 7 MAY 2024

As part of Jeannie's practical legal placement, she volunteered with Prisoners' Legal Service, Inc on her pathway to being admitted as a solicitor with the Supreme Court of Queensland and the High Court of Australia.

Dabbling initially with family law and general practice in her early career, she honed her understanding of the foundations of a law firm. However, it was her placement at the aforementioned Community Legal Centre that would be invaluable in shaping her future legal career at the Queensland Ombudsman.

After many years of service in the public sector, Jeannie came full circle and established a private law firm with Nigel Chan, the very same lawyer who supervised her legal placement at the commencement of her legal career, nearly two decades ago. The firm she sadly leaves behind is Clay Lawyers, aptly named after the bible study group both law partners attended and the Jars of Clay verse from 2 Corinthians 4:7-9.

"Your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure.
You are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure."

THANK YOU

Words cannot express our heartfelt thanks for your prayers and support during this time. Your shared memories, comforting condolences and gestures of love and kindness to our family are truly appreciated. We are blessed to be gathered amongst friends and family to honour and celebrate the life of our dear daughter and sister, Jeannie.
